

Dog registration

You are required by law to register your dog

- Dogs over the age of three months are required to be registered with a local government.
- Even apart from the law, if you care for your dog, you should register your dog in case it strays and is hurt, sick and/or lost to assist authorities in contacting you.
- It is an offence to have an unregistered dog

Dog Registration Tags

- Your dog is required to wear a collar with your name and address or phone number attached, as well as a valid registration tag.
- Property all dogs are required to wear a registration tag in public places.
- If you have lost the dog tag, replacements are available at the shire office.

Confining Your Dog

- When registering, you are required to make a declaration to certify that the property where the dog is kept is capable of confining the dog within those premises.
- Tethering is not considered an effective means of confinement, and is an offence.

Registration Fees

- Registration fees can be paid at the Nannup Shire office.
