REPORTS OF OFFICERS

6.1 Treasurer's Report:

LDAG Inc. Ledger - Sgt. Grant Berry read to the ledger not being available. Annie Crutchlow stated that she has tried to make contact with LDAG Inc. over the past few months. Note – since the LDAG Committee Meeting, Annie Crutchlow has spoken to someone through the LDAG Inc. line. LDAG Inc. did not retain their funding, and are no longer active. They are now running as Western Australia Advice Advocacy Network (WACAAN). There is no longer any operational funding available, and no STRIVE grant funding. At this stage it is unclear how this effects the ADF CAP-9 submission.

ADF CAP-9 – Sgt. Grant Berry read to the ADF CAP-9 not yet being confirmed successful. Due to the submission requiring Eastern States Assessors, the process has been longer than expected. Danielle Dwyer asked whether it was a positive that it had gone to the Eastern States Assessors, and Annie Crutchlow clarified that it was sent East due to the requested amount of funding.

There was no Treasurers Report supplied for this meeting as it was incorporated into the Summary for ADF CAPS. It was suggested that Sgt Grant Berry takes over the Treasurers position from Matthew Goldstone as he attends more meetings. The committee agree in principle to the resignation of Matthew Goldstone from that position, and the nomination of Sgt. Grant Berry.

6.2 Project Officer Report:

July School Holiday Program – Annie Crutchlow spoke to the July School Holiday program, stating there were 104 interactions with young people over the two week period.

September/October School Holiday Program – Annie Crutchlow spoke to the creation of the new “Spring” School Holiday Program, outlining the facilitators who have been booked for the program. Annie Crutchlow stated that all of the activities in the Spring School Holiday Program are free, with no cost to youths and their families. Danielle Dwyer requested the change in name for the Nannup Community Resource Centre activity, which Annie Crutchlow will amend before sending through to stakeholders. Danielle Dwyer also stated that the Nannup CRC are looking for volunteers who could potentially help for this activity.

Nannup Youth Zone - Annie Crutchlow spoke to Youth Zone Program, having continued lower numbers over the winter months. Annie Crutchlow also stated that due to the uncertainty surrounding funding, the Youth Zone program is currently devising an ongoing low-cost project. Cr. Vicki Hansen suggested that if more funds were required, to speak to community groups around donations.

6.3 RoadWise Report:

Note – Katherine Celenza has provided the Road Wise Report after the LDAG Committee Meeting in her absence: New National Road Safety Grants now open New national road safety grants now open | Ministers for the Department of Infrastructure. Funding is available for non-infrastructure road safety projects across the country. Grants are available between $20,000 and $1.5 million for the community education and awareness, which incorporates workplace road safety, as well as vulnerable road users focus areas. Applications close 25 August 2023.

COMMUNITY ACTION PLAN -

Campaigns: August September – Annie Crutchlow spoke to the Community Action Plan, outlining two important dates of International Overdose Awareness Day on 31 August & World Suicide Prevention Day on 1-September. Campaigns include Think Mental Health: Looking After You & Drug Aware: Methamphetamine Helpline

OTHER BUSINESS - ROUND TABLE

- Annie Crutchlow spoke to Family Fun Day, stating that quotes have been requested for Laser Tag and a Bucking Bull to entice older youths in the community. Sgt. Grant Berry stated that the Nannup Police would attend and participate in the Laser Tag sessions. Danielle Dwyer stated that the Nannup CRC Trainee, Sheridan Pipkin would be available on the day for assistance, and Cr. Vicki Hansen stated that she would be available for parking duties. Cr. Vicki Hansen also requested that Shire President Tony Dean was approached to open the Nannup Family Fun Day and have involvement throughout the day. Annie Crutchlow will approach Shire President Tony Dean with some ideas. Danielle Dwyer requested photos for the Nannup Family Fun Day within a few days post event in order to run the Nannup Family Fun Day story as the hero piece on the front page of the Nannup Telegraph for February.
- Cr. Vicki Hansen raised the notion that there was funding available for the Veterans Seniors Week, and Annie Crutchlow suggested that if a morning tea or similar was to be created, that the youths from the Nannup Youth Zone could bake and provide these to the event.
